VOCATIONAL EXPERT TO LECTURE HERE

Chautauqua Audiences will Hear Important Address.

Prof. Chester M. Sanford to Discuss
Problem of Avoiding the Mist
In Industry.

"What shall I do in the world?" is a great problem which interests all of us. At the opening of this problem is afforded by the lecture, "Vocations of the World," to be given here at the Chautauqua by Prof. Chester M. Sanford.

Professor Sanford is an expert on vocational guidance. His lecture aims to guide the young people of the community into choosing their proper vocation. He will help eliminate mistakes in industry and the professions. Every person, young or old, who has the future of America at heart will be vitally interested in this lecture.

The tragedy in many lives is the attempt to succeed in one line of work when ability and inclination point in an entirely different direction. Many a man who would succeed in business would be a failure as a physician and vice versa.

Professor Sanford's lecture gives valuable suggestions concerning the choosing of a vocation.

City Court News

The Wednesday, May 31, July, 1922, was a day of a warrant of arrest for Mrs. George Morgan charging her husband with neglecting his wife and children. Mrs. Morgan had a warrant issued for him, her mother, Mrs. L. E. Morgan and Mrs. Joe Morgan.

These people are all neighbors and reside in the northern section of the city, known as the "Hill." The last trouble was out of the house of Mrs. Morgan's 11-year-old son. The defendant was not doing his duty, but allowing that she had been killing their young chickens. The owner of the lot admitted that there had been young chickens killed but denied the guilt of her son, affirming that she had been another rat with a young chicken in its mouth.

After hearing the evidence City Attorney J. G. Buchanan dismissed the case against Mrs. Joe Morgan and A. J. and Nevada Moore, attorney for Mrs. Morgan, made a motion for the dismissal of the case on account of her age, she being only 17 years old, which the court sustained. The case against Billy Morgan and his mother were also dismissed and Judge Caldwell declared the case adjourned.

L. E. Morgan and R. E. Morgan, charged with disorderly conduct, were taken to the court last week.

Harmon was arrested a few days ago and was committed.

Court House News

Blair J. T. Wright reports that the biggest job on hand at his office now is the buying and delivering at the hands of his deputies notification slips to the one thousand or more citizens all over the county and elsewhere informing them that their taxes have been raised.

"In the fellow's luck," says some of them, "like bay steers," and the Sheriff, "but as a general thing everybody takes it as something that has to be wrongfully induced."

HERDFORD SALE

W. R. Cruse will sell his entire herd of registered cattle at Princeton at 1:00 P. M. June 15. This will be an opportunity to buy well-bred cattle reasonably.

NEW GENERAL REGISTRATION ACT

Important Features of New Act Enacted by Last
General Assembly

It must be remembered that voters cannot register by mail. They must apply in person and in the presence of two legal voters.

Each voter will be called upon to state his or her political affiliation. This may be given as "Independent," "Republican," "Democrat," "Socialist" and so on.

The penalties for fraud, illegal registration and interfering with registration are rather severe. If any one disturbs or hinders the registration, he is guilty of misdemeanor and may be fined as much as one hundred dollars. A registration officer who fails to do his duty may be fined the same amount. Altering or destroying a registration book is a felony and may be punished by confinement in the penitentiary from one to five years. Anyone who breaks up or attempts to break up a registration may be fined from one hundred to five hundred dollars and imprisoned in the county jail from six to twelve months.

When the registration is finished, the registration books are to be taken to the County Court Clerk's office. The law does not say which officer or officers shall do this. It would be proper for at least two of the officers, one from each political party to go with the books to the clerk's office as is done in case of elections.

The registration officers must be sworn before beginning their work. They can be sworn before any officer authorized to administer an oath. If it is not convenient to go before an officer, the registration clerk is authorized to swear the other three officers and then one of the judges to administer the oath to the clerk.

Persons who cannot read or write are entitled to be registered. If the voter can write his own name in the registration book he is required to do so. If he cannot write his name he should state that fact on oath to the registration officer and then the clerk will sign the voter's name for him.

THE REVIVAL MEETING

Rev. G. P. Dillon, pastor of the Methodist church, closed a one week series of revival meetings Sunday evening. Despite the warm weather the attendance at every evening service was good and the interest, especially among the young people, was splendid.

Evangelist Robert Lear is well known as a choir leader and singer, and assisted by the children's choir, the young people's choir, as well as by the general choir and the church orchestra, the music was splendid and was pronounced to be one of the important features of the meetings.

While popular with all the church, the Dillon seems to have a special facility to win the confidence and love of the children and the young people and a number of his discourses were directed to these. Five additions, four by profession and one by letter, were added to the church Sunday and seven infants received the rite of baptism. Evangelist Lear preached the closing sermon Sunday evening.

BRIDGE TO BE BUILT ACROSS TRADWATER

The Boone County Fiscal Court met in a call session on last Saturday and voted to build a bridge across Tradewater at the mouth of Cypress, at the same time voted an appropriation of $12,000 or more if necessary for construction of same. Also, at the same time appointed Judge William M. Berry to confer with Judge Travis and fix a date for a joint meeting of the two Fiscal Courts to meet at Sturgis and select the site, etc., for the said bridge.

This bridge has been needed for the convenience of all the northern part of the county and Judge Travis says he is doing all he can to have it completed before the year is out.

Wheat Variety Tests

In last weeks paper the attention of wheat growers in the county was called to the wheat variety tests on Mr. J. I. Clement's farm. A more recent inspection shows some very interesting developments. The four varieties on test are Fulcaster, Currel's Prolific, Ashland and Kamred with the beardless varieties making the best showing. The Kamred wheat is the old Kansas Red Wheat. The Ashland wheat at the present time is standing up best of all and given indications of making the best yield. Mr. Kenny, crop specialist, from the Experiment Station made a count of the number of stalks per foot in three different places in each test plot and found the following averages: Ashland 35 stalks per foot, Currel's Prolific 25; Fulcaster 27; Kamred 30 and local Fultz 27. The Ashland wheat has been selected from the old Jersey Fultz by the Kentucky Experiment Station and has out yielded in most cases other Kentucky varieties. The wheat on the test plots will be harvested separately and an accurate record kept of the results.

In the mean time go and see this test. Mr. Kenny says it is one of the best variety tests in this part of Kentucky. It is along the road between the covered bridge and White Hall school in the corner of the field. From south to north the varieties are Kamred, Ashland, Currel's Prolific and Fulcaster.

Swat the Rooster

Roosters allowed to run with poultry flocks during warm weather cause Kentucky poultry men and farmers an enormous loss each year in the form of fertile eggs that spoil on their way to the consumer, say poultry men at the College of Agriculture. The production of infertile eggs and the prevention of a large part of this loss requires that owners of laying hens sell, kill or confine all roosters as soon as the hatching season is over. A fertile egg may become unfit for food in 24 hours of warm weather while an infertile egg may be kept in an incubator at 103 degrees for seven days and still be good for cooking, says Mr. Martin Head of the College Poultry Department.

Get rid of the roosters in warm weather the hens will lay just as well without them.

Equal parts of air slaked lime and tobacco dust or an equal parts of lead arsenate and air slaked lime mixed together and sprinkled around cucumber, melon and squash plants act as a repellent to the striped cucumber beetle which already is reported to be giving some trouble. Tobacco dust may be obtained by grinding tobacco stems.

Premium on Healthy Hags

Many County Farm Bureaus have as a part of their program of work the eradication of tuberculosis. Now come the parkers and announce that beginning July 1 and continuing thru a two year period thereafter they would pay a premium of 10 cents per hundred weight for hogs coming from counties free from tuberculosis. The above was taken from the American Farm Bureau weekly newsletter of May 21st.

Marion's New Bakery

Elsewhere in this issue of the Press appears the announcement of Marion's New Pure Food Bakery, which will be opened for business on Friday of this week. For many years Marion has had need of a plant of this sort and the new plant which has during the last week been installed by the owner, Mr. E. R. Hutson, should please the most exacting. It is thoroughly modern and up-to-date in every way and is absolutely sanitary in every detail.

In an interview with Mr. Hutson the first of the week he mentioned the fact that he asked only one thing of those who liked good bread and that was the opportunity to show what his bread was like. The test of good bread is in the eating and Mr. Hutson is anxious to have you make the test.

When you call your grocer for bread ask him if it is Marion made. The Crittenden Press stands for the Crittenden county first and we hope for Mr. Hutson a good trade and wish him the best of success in Marion.

WILL FEDERAL HIGHWAY BE BUILT THIS YEAR?

Will the road from Salem to Marion, a portion of the Federal Highway, known as the Ohio River route from Paducah to Louisville be built this year?

The Federal Government has appropriated fifty million dollars for road construction this year. It is not known yet just what Kentucky's part will be, but at the April meeting of the State Road Commissioners Crittenden county was pointed out that if the Government did make the appropriation, we should get the road from here to Salem this year.

So Judge Travis, with others will go to Frankfort, June 12, to see that the State Board make good the promise and give us this road this year. It is hoped that the Judge and the others will be able to cross the road back with them, or the "where-with" with which to build it.

TRAINING CAMP OPENS AUGUST 1

Government Anxious for Young Men To Take Advantage of This Opportunity

Major C. T. Smart, U. S. Army, was in Marion last week in the interest of the U. S. M. T. C. or Civilian Military Training Camp. Judge C. S. Nunn is the local Chairman of the Training Camp Association and he has the necessary application blanks and will be pleased to assist any young man submit his application. Dr. T. A. Frazer will make the physical examination without cost to the applicant. The camp will be at Camp Knox, about 25 miles from Louisville and will last one month, August 1st to 31st.

The government is anxious to have young men between the ages of 17 and 25 years to take advantage of this opportunity. All expenses are paid from the time the young man leaves home until he returns a month later. This includes railway fare, meals, clothing, equipment, etc. and all medical and dental attendance is free.

There will be about 3000 at the camp from Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky. This leaves about 750 to each state or an average of about five to a county so the sooner the applications are submitted the better.

The training while at the camp will combine military and physical instruction. There will be opportunity for play, recreation and entertainment. Athletics including group games, field and track sport and team play have a place in the training program. Bands, orchestras and entertainments will be organized among the students.

The improvement shown at the end of a month's training is wonderful, while they are under the observing eyes of experienced officers, they will learn the meaning of discipline, develop neatness and self reliance, body and mind and will return at the end of the month's training bigger, better boys. They get new ideas while working and playing with the other boys from other states and by rubbing shoulders with them they get a broader idea of citizenship.

Their welfare is carefully guarded. Their religious faith may be followed at the camp. Religion is both respected and encouraged in the Army.

The commanding officer at Camp Knox invites the parents to visit the camp while their sons are there and see how they live and learn. There is a hospital house at the camp for the convenience of the young men and their friends who may visit them while there.

While at the camp a strict but not harsh discipline is enforced at all times.

Talk it over, applications should be submitted not later than June 5.

Hail Insurance Rates Reduced on Tobacco

With the recent restrictions of hail storm insurance rates on growing tobacco in the face of the enormous losses to growers within the last four or five years, every grower can afford to protect himself to the limit and, with safety, go into the business of producing a crop that requires so much money, time and labor as does tobacco, that should be insured against loss by hail storms.

Now that so many growers have gone into an organization for a more economical insurance way of handling their crops, and the insurance companies have so lowered rates on had insurance, there is no reason in the world for any grower to neglect the protection of his crop by simple insurance.

Let us see your insurance agent right away and have him protect your crop which is sure to be destroyed any day by a hail storm. Policies become effective soon, July 10th.

PRECISION plays an important part in the manufacture of the Special-Six. It is largely responsible for the dependable service that has singled out the Special-Six as an incomparable value.

Six hundred and eighty inspectors safeguard precision in the Studebaker factories. They literally inspect every part that goes into every car—and every operation on every part. Before cars are passed for delivery 9,500 inspections are made.

In the Special-Six there are 1,120 mechanical operations to the accuracy of one-thousandth of an inch, 360 to one-half-thousandth.

As to the car's performance, a brief experience will reveal its superiority far more convincingly than we could tell it.
